

Making French-Canadian Genealogy Easy Using the Drouin Collections

John P. DuLong, Ph.D.
Family History Seminar
Lansing
28 April 2018

Acknowledgements

- Thanks to the Family History Library for inviting me to speak
- Also, thanks to the members of the French-Canadian Heritage Society of Michigan for all their support over the years

Embarrassment of Riches

- Best preserved and indexed genealogical records in North America
- Québec always led the way in the quantity and quality of genealogical records
- Now she is leading the way in making these records available online
- We are going to focus on what is perhaps the best and easiest of the online collections, that is, the Drouin Collection

Topics

- What is the Institut Généalogique Drouin?
- The Drouin Collection at GenealogieQuebec.com
 - LAFRANCE
 - PRDH
 - Other resources at GenealogieQuebec.com
- The Drouin Collection at Ancestry.com

Online Handout

- Point your browser to <http://habitant.org>
- Select the link to “Making French-Canadian Genealogy Easy Using the Drouin Collections”
- There you will find the syllabus for this lecture
- And I have included this PowerPoint presentation

Website Address

<http://habitant.org>

Focus on Catholic Parish Registers

- Most French Canadians are Catholic
- Catholic parish registers go back to 1621
- The Drouin Collections index these parish registers and have links images from the original registers

Parish Registers

- Church Copy
 - Kept at the parish
 - Microfilmed by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
 - Used by the PRDH
 - Original record, fewer mistakes
 - Few parish registers lost
- Civil Copy
 - Kept at the regional branches of the Québec archives
 - Microfilmed and used by the Drouin Collection
 - A nearly contemporary duplicate record, but still considered an original reference
 - Replacement of lost parish registers

What is the Institut Généalogique Drouin?

- Imagine you have access to one of the largest and most thorough private genealogical collections
- This collection was closed to the public
- To benefit from it you had to pay a professional genealogist
- The Institut Généalogique Drouin (IGD) was a private genealogical firm

Institut Généalogique Drouin

- Leading Québec genealogical firm from 1899 to 1980 founded by Joseph Drouin and later run by his son Gabriel Drouin
- Impressive collection of microfilmed records
- The company ran into financial difficulties and Claude Drouin sold the collection to Jean-Pierre Pepin after 1980

The Renewed Institut Généalogique Drouin

- Pepin decided to open the collection to the public through a subscription online service
- Working with Sébastien Robert, Pepin has digitized the records and created GenealogieQuebec.com
- Ancestry.com has purchased digital rights and indexed some of the collection

GenealogieQuebec.com

- English interface at <https://www.genealogiequebec.com/en/>
- The records are in French
- LAFRANCE is the most important service at GenealogieQuebec.com and will be focusing on it
- There are several other important genealogical resources at this site, but they are not yet indexed

LAFRANCE

- Catholic Baptisms 1621-1861
- Catholic Marriages 1621-1917
- Catholic Burials 1621-1861
- BMD 1862-2008, a collaborative database of vital acts collected by various Québec genealogy societies.
- Protestant Marriages 1760-1849

Other Genealogy Resources

- Loisel index to Québec marriages is available
- The papers and card indexes for several important Québec genealogists, including Archange Godbout, Roland-J. Auger, and René Jetté can be found here
- Previously published genealogical works of the IGD are included
- Access to Jetté's genealogical dictionary
- The 47 published volumes of the PRDH
- And many more miscellaneous but at this time unindexed genealogical collections

Complete List of Resources

- For a list of all the available records and collections at GenealogyQuebec.com see:
<https://www.genealogiequebec.com/en/about>
- Most of these additional resources are NOT indexed at this time

GenealogieQuebec.com Cost

- Three plans as of April 2018:
 - $5.00 for 24 hours of access, 75 images
 - $13.00 per month, 75 images per day
 - $100.00 per year, 1,050 images per week
- This pricing is much more reasonable than Ancestry.com and PRDH
- You can try a day subscription and see if it is worthwhile to get a longer subscription

Here are some comments we have received from our subscribers :

I just recently discovered your data base. It is truly an amazing treasure! In a matter of weeks I have been able to trace my Quebec ancestors back to the 1770's as well as find the missing records of my British ancestors from their time in Lower Canada. I thank you and all the others who have put so much effort into making these records so accessible.

The LAFRANCE (Baptisms, Marriages, Burials)

IndividualCoupleParish

- Available parishes for the 1850-1861 period (271 parishes)
- Name standardisation in the LAFRANCE
- Annual frequency of acts in a parish based by type

- LAFRANCE parishes map up to 1913
- First-name standardisation in the LAFRANCE
- Family name-nickname associations in the LAFRANCE

The LAFRANCE : French America : Old and new records and effective collections.

As of June 2017, the LAFRANCE offers its subscribers a full quality index – names of the subjects, theirs parents or spouse – of the following catholic acts registered in Quebec:

ALL MARRIAGES from the arrival of the first French settlers to the year 1917 (some 900 000 records).

ALL MARRIAGES from the arrival of the first French settlers to the year 1917 (some 900 000 records). The records from 1621 to 1917 include a DIRECT LINK to the image of the original document.

ALL BAPTISMS and BURIALS for the 1621-1849 period, with a link to the original (more than 2 206 000 records)

About 975 000 Baptisms and Burials for 1825-1849, with a link to the original. 1850-1861 period is currently under production. About 271 parishes are currently available.

Thanks to a most fruitful collaboration between University research and genealogy

Over 3 502 147 acts of the 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th and early 21st centuries that are now available in the LAFRANCE. Learn more ...

Later within this fascinating project, reconstituted families and links with other data within the site will further enhance this extraordinary source of information.

A new tool called Likeness has been added. The Likeness function differs from the name dictionary because it not only includes all of the variations of a name, but also all of the names that are similar to it in terms of pronunciation or spelling. For example, a search for Gauthier, which will include all of the variations given earlier, will also include the names Gonthier, Vauthier,

PRDH

- Le Programme de recherche en démographie historique (The Research Program in Historical Demography), University of Montréal
- Started in 1966 by demographers, but has only been online for a few years
- Computerized population registry
- All baptism, marriage, and burial records of Québec from 1621 to 1849 and a little beyond in some parishes
- Based mostly on the church copies of the parish registers
- Census, confirmation, lists of passengers, etc., records also included
- They reconstruct families
- Have a collaborative relationship with GenealogieQuebec.com

PRDH

- Offers three sections that can be searched:
 - Repertory of Vital Events (1621-1849), individual, couple, parish, and number
 - Genealogical Dictionary of Families (1621-1824), individual, family, individual number, and family number
 - Repertory of Couples and Filial Relations (1621-1824), couples and couple number
- Each individual and couple event has a certificate number associated with the record, can use in citations

PRDH

- Very limited coverage of frontier locations in the Great Lakes, Acadia, and Louisiana
- Index is free, but you must pay to view records
- Fees are reasonable, for instance, 500 hits for $43.95 Canadian, 16¢ per hit
- Family reconstruction very helpful
- Does not link to original parish register

Drouin Collection at Ancestry.Com

- Not all of the record sets are indexed
- Until a record set is indexed, you must know a location and period to search
- The digital images vary in quality
- Usually it is the civil copy of the parish register
- Some transcriptions of records are included
- Coverage diminishes for the twentieth century
- Frontier locations are included

Drouin Collection Record Sets

- Quebec, Canada, Vital and Church Records, 1621-1968
- Ontario, Canada, Catholic Church Records, 1802-1967
- U.S., French Catholic Church, 1695-1954
- Acadia, Canada, Vital and Church Records, 1757-1946
- Quebec Notarial Records, 1647-1942
- U.S. and Canada, Miscellaneous French Records, 1651-1941

Drouin Collection

- To use the Drouin Collection you must be a World Explorer subscriber
- This subscription costs $299 a year or $149 for six months
- Well worth it if you have an abundance of French-Canadian ancestors and other European ancestors you are tracing, but if just researching French-Canadian ancestors, then GenealogieQuebec.com is probably better for you
- Frankly, I am still learning what is and is not indexed in the Drouin Collection at Ancestry.com

Benefits of Using the Drouin Collection

- Offers you the leisure to search the parish registers from the comfort of your home
- The digital images are easier on the eyes than the microfilm images
- The parish registers are indexed and easily searched
- Can do research quicker and with less expense than in the past

Future Developments

- The records indexed at GenealogieQuebec.com will continue to be expanded
- The Family History Library has launched a massive digitization project to convert all its microfilm collection
- This will eventually include all the Québec parish registers and notarial records
- Many of these records are available now, but are not yet indexed
- You will be able to search these records from your home for free

Les Misérables

- Those who can not make a connection back to Québec's records
- Keep trying, do not abandon hope
- Try the family approach, perhaps a brother or sister of your ancestor has left a record behind
- Try a demographic approach to narrow your search
- You too can enter what the late René Jetté called the genealogical paradise of Québec
